I know you know
everybody here is happy we know they know you may find yourself one day staring at the sun wondering why you worked so hard having all but fun slavery from nine till five ain't the life you need the boss you have will put you down he won't set you free cause he know you won't be coming back he know you won't be coming back - heey

I know you know...

Broken back is all you get from working night and day give yourself some pleasuretime take a trip away sad to say but and okay allways on the run promise I'll be back one day and we will have some fun

Cause you know I will be coming back you know I will be coming back - yeeah

Come on be happy now you know I allways will until the day that I'll be gone you gotta find the thrill until the day that you'll be gone you gotta find the thrill.
