

Zididada, The Dotted Line

Release date: 1. November 2000

Album: Have a zididada day

I've been searching all my life
Never had a peacefull mind

(bridge)

Guess I've never had the courage
To embrace life as it came way
I always felt the fear of disgrace
Here's what I have to say

(chorus)

Let me lead you to the dotted line
Don't you think that we been wasting time
Baby we were meant for each other

To many times I've denied myself
The help I needed to break out of my shell

(bridge)

& (chorus)

You should know I wont let go
Can't live without you anymore
Love has struck I'm on the floor

(chorus)
