

Ziggy Marley, Jah Is True And Perfect

So people ain't it time to feel
Rather than gazing past reality
So you run from the rock
And you end up in the wilderness
And the big bad wolf is getting vex

You remember this

CHORUS:

Jah is true and perfect more holy than man
Jah is true and perfect and those who are with him

He that plant the seed is the son of man
The field is the Earth, the food seeds are the children
Joyful is men when the truth is known
But sadness come with the lies they tell

Well I dig this

CHORUS

Hey you remember this

CHORUS

So people ain't it time to feel
Rather than gazing past reality
So you run from the rock
And you end up in the wilderness
And the big bad wolf have no regrets

But remember this, Jah is true and perfect more holy than man
Yeah Jah is true and perfect and those who are with him
Stay there
Jah is true and perfect more holy than man
Jah is true and perfect and those who are with him
Stay there

Jah is true and perfect more holy than man
Jah is true and perfect and those who are with him
Jah is true and perfect more holy than man
