

Ziggy Marley, Shalom Salaam

lost am I in my memories of my forefathers' legacy I am one of you you are one of me why don't we set the people free how I grieve to see fulfillment of prophecy naive of me to think things could change while man remain the same so war will be for me everyday no peace no peace for the children of Israel Gaza cries all the tears from her eyes will there be no peace for the children of Palestine shalom salaam shalom salaam who will take the blame for the blood of my children to who does vengeance belong to no one no one we're dying from tanks and suicide bombs the only answer is to live as one and justice will come for my sons and just will come for my sons

and I wonder why and I wonder who and I wonder what is in the heart of you
and I wonder why and I wonder who and I wonder what
children are children no matter color or faith and I wonder if history will teach us again so war will be for me everyday

no peace no peace for the children of Israel

and justice will come for my sons
