

Zoe, Anymore

You're just like an open book
Can read you by the way you look
And I know that you'll always be
Close to me and I know that you care
You're changin' for nobody
You're just like you used to be
And I hope that you're happy now
Anyhow, after all standin' tall
'Cause you know, you know I won't be there

Chorus

I don't want to give anymore
I don't want to give anymore
'Cause after all this time
I finally mady up ma mind
I don't want to give anymore
I do not forgive anymore
It's something you can't ignore
No, I don't want so give anymore
We're driftin' our separate ways
We've both seen much better days
Didn't we have it in our hands
The chill remains when I'm closing my eyes
Even though you're outta sight
You'll never be outta my mind
And I know I will not forget
The times we had, we went so fast - they didn't last
For as long, for as long 's we were there

Chorus

I don't want to give anymore
I don't want so give anymore
Still I know that you'll always be
Close to me - and I know
And I know, and I know, and I know that you're there
Chorus
