Zonaria, Evolution Overdose

Ive been told about an ending A darkness to cover this world Now its here, tearing our souls apart Leaving no peace, no rest, nor rapture

The arrival of the shadows Im suffocated, cant take my last breath And time, revealed to be our great enemy Now everything will slowly cease to be

Time has come to an end Which no one will escape Leaving the world paralyzed and vain Cos seas will drain and we will fade away

Time has come to an end Which no one will escape Leaving the world paralyzed and vain Cos seas will drain and we will fade away
