Zornik, Black Hope Shot Down

Get get get your widowmaker And put your children back inside. Yet yet yet another failure in this life of the free.

Black hope shot down there's a gun in his hand that souls divine there's a hole in his head.

Back back back off for I break you And that's how everything goes down. Run run run away don't stay here Or they'll say it's your time.

Black hope shot down there's a gun in his hand that souls divine there's a hole in his head.

Black hope shot down there's a gun in his hand.

Shot down

Black hope shot down there's a gun in his hand that souls divine there's a hole in his head.
