

10,000 Maniacs, Somebody's Heaven

Music by 10,000 Maniacs - Lyrics by Mary Ramsey

There like a feather you fell someone's heaven above me floating so fickle tempting me teasing my ways thrown from its clutches I struggle to free what escapes me Absalom hanging like you I'm caught in between heaven then earth then heaven between you release me untangle my hair Absalom hanging like you I'm caught in between heaven then earth heaven between you patient I wait as I hold a small feather that floated from somebody's heaven.
