

10,000 Maniacs, Time Turns

Music by 10,000 Maniacs - Lyrics by Mary Ramsey & John Lombardo

I saw time turn
so much there to unlearn, you were envy you wouldn't say you tore heart strings that sorry day dark light hid the tears one for each of the years love has reasons
reason never knows time turns over love overflows
I should have spoken sooner on that sorry day your arms are open and I wondered why
wondered why five years passed to the day time heals some people say when you hurt the ones I love you're also hurting me and time turns over turning you from me I thought you'd never reach me on that sorry day your arms were open wide
