

100th And May, Brittany's Song

-Verse 1-

Is this what you dreamed
That your life would always be
Torn up pages that never rhyme
Countless heartaches that always cry

-Chorus-

Do you want to come home
I know you try but you
Cant stand up strong

I want you to know that
I wont ever let you go
Try and try as you may
Ill be here every single day

-Bridge-

Youre an angel, Love, Ive told you that
So spread your wings and fly
Into the could where you belong
Now maybe the sun might shine
