

100th And May, Her Wish

-Verse 1-

She said I want someone to hold my hand
In the mall, just to make the other girls jealous
Someone to sing to me
And someone whos more romantic than goofy
Someone to throw stuffed animals at me
When Im acting dumb
And a guy who would make fun of me
Just to hear me laugh

-Chorus-

Well I cant buy you a diamond
Or a fancy life
But I could bet you all my kisses
Just to make you laugh

-Verse2-

She wants someone to play with her hair
And buy her a 25 cent ring
Someone who would share a lollipop
And count the stars just before it rains
Maybe someone who would fill their camera
Of pictures of her and their love
Someone who would always make her smile
That's someone she would love
