

100th And May, Wishes

-Verse 1-

Look inside the mirror and tell me what you see
Is it a lost or broken memory?
And I cant try to find a reason why
You find yourself in my arms tonight
Ive tried and tried until I fell down
The reasons why you cannot feel the ground

-Chorus-

Cause youre an angel, youre feel cant touch the ground
And the places that you lost were never found
Its an unknown reason I cant explain why
Cause I just make wishes when I look in your eyes

Falling down is only halfway up
When youve fallen for the most beautiful girl
And she reads to me the stories of her life
When shes lying in my arms
She says Evan, why cant I hear the sounds
