

112, Missing You

Sitting here thinking about you and all the things we used to do I never thought that i would lose you, cause you were always my boo sitting here wondering where we, wondering where we went wrong
Cause now i am here all alone wishing you would come back home

So tell me why (why)
why did you have to go away
got me missing you everyday baby tell me why (why)
why did you have to go away
got me missing you everyday (everyday i am missing you)

I don't understand why you left, baby what didn't i do Wasn't i always there for you and wasn't i good to you How was i to know something was wrong baby i can't read minds
All you had to do was tell me but you kept it all inside

So tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday
Baby tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday (everyday i'm missing you)

Girl i'll never find another
Another one to take your place
Because you were so so good to me baby
And you kept a smile upon my face
And i'm on my bended knee
And i am crying, crying won't you come back to me
Cause you mean the world to me

So tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday
Oh tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday (everyday i'm missing you)

I was so in love with you baby
But you broke my heart into little itty bitty pieces
What am i supposed to do living my life without you
My heart, my soul, my one and only true love
