

112, Why (Interlude)

Why,Why,Why Do I Love You

Why

At Times I Sit All By Myself And Wonder

Why Do I Love You

Like I Do

All The Love You've, Given Me

So Special, Seems To Be

No Limit, I'll Do Anything

There's no boundary

To how we can grow

How can I let you know

Gotta let me sit and think

Oooh

Why Does The Wind Blow

Why Does The Sun Shine

Why Does The Rain Fall, Down On My Face

Why Does The Earth Spin

Why Do The Waters Reach The Shore

And Tell Me Tell Me Why

Why Do I Love You Like, I Do

Why,Why
