

13 Needles, Because You're Different

The wind against my face
At the same moment I feel you
Moving swiftly through time
Shedding skin
Well all of, all of the feelings
(Feelings)
Will soon turn to cold
Well honest, honestly seeing
(Seeing)
My own place seems far away from here
Behind the walls, no more borders
I cant remember where I last turned
The wind against my face
At the same moment I feel you
Youre moving swiftly through time
Shedding skin
I find myself naked
Before you
In form, truth, and solace
Where are you as
Soon as it eclipses
My eyes form vividly of you
Let me thank all the ones who are
Made for nothing made for nothing
I know, it's happened to you too
Do you, honestly think Id believe in the tone of your mouth
It's all a game to you dont you see that my dear
Its time
Behind the walls no more borders
I cant remember where I last turned
