

1349, I Am Abomination

Hellfire!
I have always been here
In all forms in all perversions
I will always be here
In all ways in all times
A question in hiding
A solution in disguise
I know no bounds
Like a locust storm I rise
Leprous hell-world
My world
Night world
Blood coated
World despoiler
The master of a devils march
I have crossed infernal wasted lands
To plant my flag amongst yer' bones
Rising like a broken bone
Through a sea of flesh
This world is given
Blood coated
World despoiler
The master of a devils march
Rising like a broken bone
Through a sea of flesh
This world is given
I have got paths yet to trade
I am abomination
Blood coated
World despoiler
The master of a devils march
Rising like a broken bone
Through a sea of flesh
This world is given
There is a rot whiting us
The flames lick through your veins
The abhorrent mark descending
Abomination crawling near
The absolute inhuman
I bear the abhorrent mark
My touch like hell's fire
I am abomination
I am abomination!
