

16 Horsepower, Hang My Teeth On Your Door

your sympathy is my simple joy your bosom my mobile home free from the thunder that tore me asunder i have you as my own and i hold you over rolling on the floor naked you say this is the way let's sing an' dance some more and there's love sore love in your eyes there's rest love rest for me your lonely boy rose cheeks an' ruby lips fade with every sigh dance in the middle an' flee from the ghetto an' tango thigh to thigh and please dare - show bare your need to me again this is the way - redeem the day an' daily pull me in
