

16 Horsepower, Shametown

I see the world through the eyes of an idiot talkin' big white trash (?) before the girls an' boys inside of my soul they take my path (?)
in the mirror there I see my father's face in glass I know I am not anyone yet too afraid to ask

I will pawn you my watch pawn you my chain
pawn you my new diamond ring pawn you my watch
pawn you yeah most anything get your clogs on the floor step up step up step up an' do more hey little girl is your door still open the devil still inside seen your face he left the place took everything inside hey by the way I forgot to mention I let it just slip out today is the day of salvation an' ain't gonna tell no lie

some through the water
some through the flood
some by the fire
but all through his blood
some by the bullet
