

16 Volt, Don't Pray

And I resent you
I deceive you too
I reinvent you
And I believe in you
And I defend you
Cause you know what to do
I torment you
Belief is so untrue
It wont make it easier it wont make it strong
You want it forever you want it so wrong
Your breathing in circles
Your leaving inside
Breaking in pieces it wont ever die
I walk around you
I am the other side
Keep things from you
Wait until its time
I move so slowly
I am the lowly one
I found in waiting
The deception won
Don't pray
On broken wings like broken things need broken strings
On dirty knees like dirty needs breed dirty seeds
