2 Belgen, Crazy

On the day the wall came down They threw the locks onto the ground And with glasses high we raised a cry for freedom had arrived

On the day the wall came down The Ship of Fools had finally run aground Promises lit up the night like paper doves in flight

I dreamed you had left my side No warmth, not even pride remained And even though you needed me It was clear that I could not do a thing for you

Now life devalues day by day As friends and neighbours turn away And there's a change that, even with regret, cannot be undone

Now frontiers shift like desert sands While nations wash their bloodied hands Of loyalty, of history, in shades of gray

I woke to the sound of drums The music played, the morning sun streamed in I turned and I looked at you And all but the bitted residue slipped away...slipped away
