

2 Girls, Fallen Angel

Forgive me, my weakness
My crying last night
My heart wont believe it
Get out of my sight
Without you I'm losing the grip on my life
Last night my whole world had died
I'm just a falling angel losing my religion
Trying hard to fly
I'm like a falling angel alone for a reason
Until I touch the skies
I'm just a falling angel losing my religion
Turn the hands up time
I'm like a falling angel longing for the reason
Why you can't be mine
I still feel your whispers
Your touch on my skin
I'm torn into pieces
Why don't you give in
Without you I'm losing the grip on my life
Last night my whole world had died
I'm just a falling angel losing my religion
Trying hard to fly
I'm like a falling angel alone for a reason
Until I touch the skies
I'm just a falling angel losing my religion
Turn the hands up time
I'm like a falling angel longing for the reason
Why you can't be mine
I'm just a falling angel losing my religion
Trying hard to fly
I'm like a falling angel longing for the reason
Until I touch the skies
