

28 Days, Ball Of Hate

inside you is your heart as also is a ball of hatred you struggle within don't let that hatred swallow you whole cause darkness is all you see you use it as a foundation of strength but in fact it's what makes you weak you are so much more than that ball of hate but it's all that you'll let us see we won't tear you apart we're your fucking friends but I won't take the fall just to save your ball of bitter hatred it's your call now it's up to you what will you do
I know
you can be yourself again closer to the kid I knew you can be you it's not that hard to do if you trust in us like I said
it's up to you to make a start.
