

28 Days, Eats Away

i cant stand
the taste of defeat
just like any man
but i know i'll loose more sleep if i waste another chance for nothing more than the fear of the unknown don't wait
don't wait
don't wait
people may have broken down you trust in yourself so you take that bitter pill and it hurts when you swallow down on it and it sits inside of you and it slowly eats away take that step
so don't wait
don't wait
'cause you know you cant afford to
don't wait
take a step
without your fear of failure let the rest
just drop into place
you'll never know until you place some trust in yourself
don't wait
don't wait
don't wait
people may have broken down you trust in yourself so you take that bitter pill and it will slowly eat away eat away
years may pass
but nothing may ever change if you don't want that for a life and do something today all those dreams that you have not that far out of reach a life of what ifs
the chances you had the time that you waste realise now that they may never come again the rest of your life has just begun so stop to the plate what's done is done
i cant stand
the taste of defeat
just like any man
i want you to feel the weight
