

28 Days, Goodbye

Thought I left you all behind put you all out of my mind thought I made it clear that I just didn't want to be near you again you could never be classed as a friend and we both know that it was time to go And as I walked away, I distinctly remember hearing you say under your breath yeah he'll be back but I didn't come back did I? did I?
respect is what you lack
And you are just the same no you haven't changed a bit the same old shit you think that we are old friends cause I've got something you want I saw my cue so what's up with you
And as I walked away I distinctly
but I didn't come back did I? did I?
goodbye again
we both know that it just had to end
goodbye again
goodbye again
and we both know that it just had to end
And as I walked away I distinctly
but I didn't come back did I? did I?
respect is what you lack
goodbye again
it was time to go
goodbye again
we both know that it was time to end
