

2nd Chapter Of Acts, I'll Give My Life Away

Look at the sky
And tell me there's a limit
To the way I feel
I could fly away in a minute
On the wings of the dawn's early light
To the Morning Star

Oh, I worship you
And the ground that You walked on
Will disappear and fade out of view
And the strings hopes are strung on
Will melt away in my heart
And there they'll stay
With hope as my start
I'll give my life away
My life away to You
