

2nd Chapter Of Acts, Well, Haven't You Heard

Well, haven't you heard
That the time of man is closing
Well, can't you see
That the Son of God is coming
Christ is coming
In glory coming to reign
Christ is coming
In glory coming

On a white horse riding
Is He, incorruptable
He is called faithful and true
He rules in power
And wages war in righteousness
Holiness and justice and uprightness
His eyes blazing like fire
And on His head many kingly crowns
He is dressed in a robe of red
By dipped in blood
And He is called
The Word of God

Well, haven't you heard
The time of man is closing
Well, can't you see
That the Son of God is coming
Christ is coming
In glory coming to reign
Christ is coming
In glory coming
We'll crown Him King of kings
And Lord of lords
Forever and ever and ever

Well, haven't you heard
He's coming
