

3 Feet Smaller, All The Time

When everything was sayd and done . When you hear songs.
That remind you of the times you've shared with him. And when you think your losing everyone.
Then i'll be there for you
Everything went oh so wrong in all the time . I don't think that you carry on what he has got say
You think your life has no sence anymore
Cuz he is far, gone and i don't think he will come back.
But i will allways be there to help you .
Cuz that's what friends are for.
