

3 Feet Smaller, Commercial Radio

I'm just an ordinary guy who does not know how to write a song or how to play guitar at all I sit here, all alone, don't know what to do so i write a song about hate, about faith, a little song no one will ever listen to I know, that the cours should't be too long so everyone can sing it A small verse, stupid cords, a song for the commercial radio I record this one song, and i send it to this radio station and i hope they will play, this one song every night and day Play my song, all night long
It is so hard to write a song
