I will not, forget the way . you asked me if i will stay . If i will spend the night with you .
We were together 2 years long , but now it's over, now your gone Why did you leave me here alone
I never thought that i will spend a night a night alone again . But i can't take it anymore that i'm just
I know that i was mean to you but i'm so sorry for all the things i called you when i was drunken ag
My life is now like it was before anoyed and boring, without you Routine has taken it's place now.
I see you with your new boyfriend can't figure out why you hold his hand
He's the oposite of me (can't you say hello to me)
I wanna hold you one last time.
