30 Seconds to Mars, Dangerous Night

we burned and we bled
we try to forget
but the memories left
are still haunting

the walls that we built from bottles and pills
we swallow until
we’re not talking

I am a man on fire
you a violent desire

what a dangerous night to fall in love
don’t know why we still hide what we’ve become
do you want to cross the line
we’re running out of time
a dangerous night to fall in love

started a stranger
a lover in danger
the edge of knife

the face of an angel
the heart of a ghost
was it a dream?
