

311, It's Getting Ok Now

10. It's Getting Ok Now - (3:04)

There will come a time when I no longer am I will take my last breath and on that day
I'll be dying

At that time will I feel at ease will I dream and be at peace these are things that no one knows come on help me now

Why must I think of this until I find peace and quiet in the clouding of my mind there were times I thought I'd never come around I can tell things are getting ok now

What if there is no ending and we turn from where we've been to a place where all we can see is light pouring in

Am I really all that far far removed from that ending part or just a little closer to the galaxy's misty heart

Why must I think of this until I find
peace and quiet in the clouding of my mind
there were times I thought I'd never come around
I can tell things are getting ok now

Why must I think of this until I find
peace and quiet in the clouding of my mind
there were times I thought I'd never come around
I can tell things are getting ok now
