

311, Speak Easy

If there's a scream inside of you just let it go you're beating yourself up baby don't you know you've got to get through and lift the roof off your soul

It's like a pain locked in a part of your heart it's never gonna leave it unless you start to warm it up, be wise and be smart

Out on the ocean
there's no one around no one to hear a sound it's just us out here
out on the ocean
speaking freely

Away from the city away from the ears that bug us and judge us it's so liberating to be free and my heart slows down

Nice and easy
and your breathing will be pleasing just speak easy
and say what's on your mind I search for something to compare you to thought long and hard for a simile true now I'm suddenly aware end the quest you're beyond compare so speak easy

If there's a shadow in your life then there's sunshine things turning inside out all the time just rewind, it's all in your mind

Ooh so speak easy out here we're floating late in the night and the only light to guide us is a full moon that's glowing on the sea

speak easy
