

32 Leaves, All Is Numb

Cmon drift away through fundamental boundaries
To find ourselves surrounding
The ones whove already gone and come back stronger
All is numb
Ive been lost too long
My fates been mistakenly chosen
All is numb
Yeah Ive done you wrong
My fates been mistakenly chosen
Here youll stay
Where lies are spread wide open
And ties are not so strong
That place youll never find me
Ive already gone
{chorus}
I guess my thinking too much is whats been fuckin me up
Its my own worst enemy, but
It will never own me
Who am I kidding anyway?
{chorus}
