

32 Leaves, All Is Numb

Cmon drift away through fundamental boundaries
To find ourselves surrounding
The ones who've already gone and come back stronger
All is numb
I've been lost too long
My fates been mistakenly chosen
All is numb
Yeah I've done you wrong
My fates been mistakenly chosen
Here you'll stay
Where lies are spread wide open
And ties are not so strong
That place you'll never find me
I've already gone
{chorus}
I guess my thinking too much is what's been fuckin me up
It's my own worst enemy, but
It will never own me
Who am I kidding anyway?
{chorus}
