

32 Leaves, Watching You Disappear

Save your breath you're just someone helpless
Searching for answers all the time
Answers you can't find
Waste your breath you're just numb and hopeless
Searching for answers in your mind
Answers you can't find
Face it
You faded away from me
Face it
I'm used to it anyway
Watching you disappear
Face it
You're pushing away from me
Face it
I'm used to it anyway
Watching you disappear
Why regret, it's just somewhat pointless
You blame me, when you couldn't justify
Leaving me far behind
{chorus}
When there's no other way
And
No more to say
You fade away
You fade away
{chorus}
