

36 Crazyfists, The Black Harlow Road

Never above, never below
Always beside, beside

I chose to back off from this open wound
To sweep this all into the flames

Scream under street lights
Till the voice takes leave
Lifes beautiful mystery

Never above, never below
Always beside
Always beside

But you cant make amends
When no one lends
A chance to make up for times youve known
But you cant make amends
When no one lends
When no one lends

I found myself in due situations that bloom
And you were right, you were right
I should do something
Or maybe I should be the first to know
This cant be fixed overnight
And I know
Its getting out alive

Never above, never below
Always beside
Always beside

But you cant make amends
When no one lends
A chance to make up for times youve known
But you cant make amends
When no one lends
When no one

This is everything that stands between the sky
Between the sky
Between the sky and gray

This is everything that stands between us
Stands between us

Into the darkness take a stare
Through these years Ive shown my wear
Go on heart and still Im prepared
To fight

But you cant make amends
When no one lends
A chance to make up for times youve known
But you cant make amends
When no one lends
When no one lends

This is everything that stands between
The sky and the gray