

3rd Root, Rise

And I will rise
With the GOD of love
And you will shine
In the spirit I cried
Once twined to this world
That I don't deny he shall

Rise, rise, rise
Break the bones
Rise, rise, rise
Break the bones and you shine

Check one, two listen up
What I inhale and what I breath [x3]
Is the spirit of life that lives in me
What I inhale and what I breath [x3]
And the Son of love shall

Rise, rise, rise
Break the bones
Rise, rise, rise
Break the bones and you shine

But one day the Son of love shall rise
But when will you rise up
I see CHRIST
But when will you rise

Rise, rise, rise
Break the bones
Shine
