

3rd Storee, Don't Lose Hope

i can see you sitting there feeling like the world has passed you by i can feel you i feel you there thinking that your time is running out it's been so long since somebody patted you on the back but what do you need that for reach inside your heart and explore there's nothing you can't do if you pray stay in the fight a little longer for better days Never loose hope for tomarrow never loose sides of your ribbon in the sky never forgot into sorrow
the rain will come but the sun must shine (keep hope alive)
put the smile on you face because you came out on top
i can feel you
you used what you had and you now know it was alive cause it feels so strong from behind the past you bounced your way back it's what you are living for reach inside you heart and explore there's nothing you can't do if you pray
stay in the fight a little longer for better days
never loose side to the ribbon in the sky
the rain will come but the sun must shine (keep hope alive)
follow you dreams, by any means it doesn't matter what it seems hold on to you pride it is the fuel of you energy to your destiny never loose hope of what tomarrows bring
the rain will come but sun must shine (keep hope alive)
i can see you
no matter what the world say, keep hopw alive
i can feel you
no matter whats around you, keep hope alive
i can see you
Fades out
