you thought i let you get away with this little thing i call my soul?

you thought i tolerate your silent terror? NO!

i come bakk!

believe it or not...

this means war against myself...

believe it or not...

believe it or not...

this means war against myself...

believe it or not...

your spittin image is spittinon you

and its afraid of what it is about to do.

i speak the unspoken

and i know the unknown code of the bakkdoor, straight to your dome!

protect yourself from yourself by yourself...

it wont help.

this is fun, grab a gun,

choose the one that is about to get done..

fukk

believe it or not...

this means war against myself...

believe it or not...

believe it or not...

this means war against myself...

believe it or not...
