

4 Lyn, Pearls And Beauty

every morning i wake up and i'm layin' next to you, i wanna thank god and the devil for sending you.
cuz' you're my girl, my wife, my sis', mother of my son... good and evil yin and yan, everything combined in one you're my favourite colour and the air i breath all day.
you're like a drug.
whe i feel fucked up you came and save my day.
one in a million...like a pearl that's so hard to find.
i'm so happy i met you and so thankful tha you're mine what we got is so special i know a million people could search their whole life long.
no words can express the way that i feel,
that's why i wrote you this song.
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side you give me love when i don't deserve it cuz' you know that's when i need it the most!
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side
baby-girl, i love you more than i ever thought i could and it's alright!
since i met you my world is perfect.
what have i done to deserve you?
you're like a goddess in my eyes.
you make me cry when i want to and smile when i can't if i got nothing to say, i know you'll understand.
baby, i would kill for you!
would give up everything i got,
just to stay with you for a lifetime,
believe it or not.
i love everything you do and would do anything for you and i know you feel the same way, too.
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side
you give me love when i don't deserve it cuz' you know that's when i
need it the most!
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side
baby-girl, i love you more than i ever thought i could and it's alright!
yo, this feeling is beautifull.
there is nothing in this world i wouldn't buy for you.
when i'm separated from my baby-girl, makes me eanna crash the world...
you wanna know why???
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side
you give me love when i don't deserve it cuz' you know that's when i
need it the most!
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side
baby-girl, i love you more than i ever thought i could and it's alright!
because i'm nothing, if you're not by my side
baby-girl, i love you more than i ever thought i could and it's alright!
