

40 Below Summer, A Season In Hell (Demo)

This, this a dark, this a place, I can't escape, would you leave me here?
Lying in wait, hanging like baits, strangled by fate, would you even care?
This is my curse, this is my life, this is my Christ, my crown of thorns
This is the way, the way that I die
Die and be reborn

Dying to touch you
I need you
I love you
To make me
To mould me
To break me again
I can't deny that I'm hurting inside as I'm pulling you closer, you push me away (You push me away)

You wonder You wonder
I know you want my fate
You wonder You wonder
to purify my veins
You wonder You wonder
So take my soul inside
You wonder You wonder
My life will never.... Die
Look, look at my face shaded in gray wasting away I'm almost gone
I can replace this empty space you left me all alone
Why can't you see me I'm hanging here bleeding it's tortured and twisting my insides apart
Laughing and crying as everything's dying in me and it's breaking my heart

You wonder
You wonder
I know you want my fate
You wonder
You wonder
To purify my veins
You wonder
You wonder
So take my soul inside
You wonder
You wonder
My life will never....Die

Save me now, save me now, save me now
Save me now, save me now, save me now
Save me now, save me now, save me now
Save me now, save me now, save me now
Save me now, save me now, save me now
Save me now, save me now, save me now
And I shower
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love, of your love
Of your love, of your love

Can you feel your life pass you by?
Can you see the sun in the sky?
Life is calling you again, again
Can you feel the end?
Can you feel the end?
Can you feel the end?

Can you feel the end?
