

4Dreamers, Song for you can I run to you when I'm black and blue why does this wrong always feel so right can I sing you a song with a voice so strong you'll never wanna leave tonight everybody wants to be a hero everybody wants to be the one I'll be at your doorstep if you say so cause it's you I'm thinking of

and baby all I do is sing, sing, sing sing a song for you
don't you worry about a thing, thing, thing I know this love is true

cause it's you I'm thinking of

will you come with me cause this could be the first day of the rest of our lives I'll sing you a song till the break of dawn I'll never have to say goodbye

everybody wants to be a hero
