

5 Days Ahead, Famous Last Words

Im done. this time Im over you. Im sick of playing all your games. this rollercoaster ride has left me dizzy and I want to leave before I lose my chance to escape this same old song and dance. I guess it couldnt hurt to take one more ride. you had told me youd made up your mind. and I was so sure that this time I was over you, the mistake of my life. its the last time and after this my heart is dead. but I will probably turn and run right back again. youre a fool boy and I dont want your love, she said. (a stupid boy) so let me know if this all really is the end.
quit playing with my head. your bouts with my heart have left me so Battered, bleeding, bruised and sore that I cant continue keeping score of who did what this time. when will I ever realize that Im not over you, the mistake of my life? so start the engine up again one last time.
Well take the road we have before. til you forget about the boy you left here. who never knows just whats in store.
so tell me what you think about, when were all alone?
I just cant read you. why do you always leave?
(its so useless, its so useless) I know itd be much better if you were replaced with someone I dont have to chase.
Im never over you the mistake of my life. I know I always need you.
so many times Ive seen this through again.
Im never over you. no hope for me tomorrow.
its time to end my sorrow once again.
Im getting (never) over you.
