

54 Seconds, Jaded

It started with a little kiss, and everyone wants you now.
Playing with a little child, and hoping I won't find out.
See how everybody falls, whenever you're close enough
Saying things you don't really mean, and I couldn't give a fuck
Cause you want it better than this...

Jaded feeling is all I have to keep you
Stop my feeling, before I fall apart

Seemingly a little cold, whenever I'm not around
Just when things are going wrong, that's when you call me up.
Cause you got it better than this...

Before I fall apart, Cause...

I'm still talking to you (x3)

CHORUS (x2)

Before I fall apart (x4)
Before I fall....
