

54 Seconds, Nothing But A Child

I didn't need your money,
Still you laid it down.
Sure enough, I gave it all up,
And you, you pushed me away

Tried to be just like you,
Leave it all behind
Nothing would have changed my world
And you, you threw it all away

I'm nothing but a child in your eyes,
In your eyes
I'll be nothing more,
Feeling all alone by your side,
And I hold on, to even the score

Didn't need an angel,
To see the same as you
Nothing's any good,
The second time around
And you, you kept me away

I'm nothing but a child in your eyes,
In your eyes, (eyes)
Feeling so alone by your side,
It takes so long, to even the score.

I'm nothing!
