

8 Foot Sativa, Genetic Treason

Civilization, bane of mankind
The old ways disappear, they always disappear
Clans and tribes moulded together, integration
Creating cities of filth
Earth is scarred, festering wounds
Humans breeding, changing, fading
A ruined world left to rot
Commune of genetic treason

No more living with the land, dominate, tame, abuse
Livestock put on death row, humanity let loose
Unnatural nature, genetic treason
Evolution in the devil's playground

Architects design with no aesthetics
Cadaverous structures, dominate landscapes
Diplomacy shot to pieces over unclaimed land
Performing c-sections, festering wounds on mother earth
Dissection of trust, unlawful judgement
Victims fisted by perverted hands of justice
Freedoms removed, controlling the masses
All rights revoked, restraining movement

Provoking the crowds, anger heightens
Freedom of speech no longer applies
Speak your voice, oppression feeding
Optimistic views discouraged
