

911, The Day We Find Love

Don't you worry, I don't mean to make you sad
My tears will soon be over
With your conscience clear for a new life ahead
Don't be sorry, I really need to hear the truth
But the only thing I'm asking, 'cos I need you to

Remember me, as the only one who set you free
Maybe time alone will make you see
How deep our love could be
No, it's never too late

'Cos I know, this isn't the first time, it won't be the last time
I surrender my soul
'Cos you're always, keepin' me waitin', anticipatin'
The day we find love once again.

I won't give up whlie there's a glimmer of a chance
A dream that's never ending
Inviting love and a perfect romance
A burning passion, oh baby you're my destiny
But the message I'm receivin', is that you're through with me

But I'll be there, even though you tell me you don't care
How could you forget the times we've shared
Don't throw our love away, you know it's never too late

'Cos I know, this isn't the first time, it won't be the last time
I surrender my soul
'Cos you're always, keepin' me waitin', anticipatin'
The day we find love once again.

Remember me, as the only one who set you free
Maybe time alone will make you see
How deep our love could be
No, it's never too late

'Cos I know, this isn't the first time, it won't be the last time
I surrender my soul
'Cos you're always, keepin' me waitin', anticipatin'
The day we find love once again.
