

999, Homicide

I believe in homicide,
I'll rest my case,
Don't cast a sigh.
You'd better believe it,
That's the truth of it,
Take it or leave it,
Resign to it.
Homicide,
Homicide,
Homicide...

You try to tell me it's his fault because he's down
And let him lose this homicide all over town
I'll take enough but I'll take it down
What's your address,
I'll write it down
I'll be in touch so don't leave town in a big black car
Homicide,
Homicide,
Homicide...
