999, Me And My Desire

This is me and my desire Taking all that I require Such a pretty sight to see And there?s nothing left for me Well you know it?s wery funny And I don?t have much money Change my colour it?s a dare Change my face and my hair Don?t want to be a moving part Back door ladies rearranger Don?t want to feel the cold nights bite In and out of my life Fascinated for a while It?s the colour of your smile And there?s plain there?s nothing free It?s not good enough for me It?s a break up such a made up What do you desire No more fake up need a shake up What do you desire This is me and my desire Taking all that I require Well you know its wery funny Such a pretty sight to see This is me and my desire Taking all that I require Well you know its wery funny And I don?t have much money Me and my? me and my Me and my desire Me and my desire
