

A Burning Water, Retract

Rise when we fall
do we take
form in time
do we care
how we live
fold your side
where to speak
where to die
still in this war
set fire to it
there's so much more to this
but there's no truth only death
plot your vengeance now
forget our lives
so set fire to it
dream is this right
do we part
does this mean
false retract
hold your eyes
sample change
of our lives
reach the sky
drink our blood now
set fire to it
plot your vengeance now
so set fire to it
their back from back from the days of our lives the decisions, decisions we make in death remember the words
remember the words and speak truth this sky inside from eyes retract our souls and
set fire to it
forget our lives
so set fire to it.
